

MTCA/SMS Advisory Group & Sediment Workgroup: Joint Meeting AGENDA

December 17, 2010, 9:30am–12:30 pm

Department of Ecology Northwest Regional Office,
3190 160th Ave SE, Bellevue, Wa. 98008
(425) 649-7000

9:30	Welcome, Introductions, announcements, review agenda, goals	Tamie Kellogg
9:40	Opening remarks and purpose of the meeting Rulemaking status <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Governor Gregoire’s Nov 16, 2010 Executive Order 10-6 suspending non-essential rulemaking The process used for decisions on Ecology rules Outcome and rationale for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> MTCA rule Sediment Management Standards UST rule Implications, unresolved questions, and path forward 	Martha Hankins
10:00	MTCA Cleanup Regulation Update: on hold for one year <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Presentation – Summary of where we are leaving the MTCA Rule Issues as Ecology Puts Rule Revisions on the Shelf for One Year <ul style="list-style-type: none"> “In progress” draft to be posted Comment period after the moratorium lifts Questions Audience comments 	Pete Kmet
10:30	Sediment Management Standards: rule updates moving forward <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Big picture challenges A decision-making framework for contaminated sediment sites <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Overview and explanation of how Ecology reached these decisions Other sediment issues Discussion Audience comments 	Dave Bradley Chance Asher
12:00	Tentative schedule, communications plan, and next steps <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Preliminary draft rule language review (target date still tbd) Email and web announcements Forming a Sediment Cleanup Advisory Group (late spring) 	Martha Hankins

Adjourn at 12:30